Introduction to Homeopathy

Rather than just suppressing symptoms with drugs, the medicines of the future will actually activate the powers resident within each and every one of us to heal. Homeopathy does just that! Of all the emerging alternative medicines we have clinically researched since the 70's, the fastest, safest and most curative results have come from homeopathy. In fact homeopathy offers us the most complete and comprehensive healing system of all.

Discovered by German physician Samuel Christian Hahnemann, this 200-year-old pharmaceutical science offers a vast accumulation of time-tested research. Through the Law of Similars (a verified law of pharmacology) the unique homeopathic potentization process is accomplished. This comprehensive process transforms minute doses of pure natural ingredients into potent natural medicines.

Homeopathy works differently from bio-chemical remedies such as herbs, and nutritionals. Rather than being bio-chemical in its action, homeopathy uniquely works on a bio-energetic basis, activating our body's energetic control systems, to evoke the appropriate healing responses.

All body functions are controlled and coordinated through energetic communication networks such as our nervous system. By balancing the inner integrity of our control systems with homeopathy, much of our bio-chemical functions can also be restored. The deeper works of homeopathy allow us to enter into a whole new realm of treating the whole person.

Homeopathy works so deeply within the fabric of the human body that actual cures can take place. Even inherited problems and weaknesses (called miasms in homeopathy) have well documented cures.

If you have used many homeopathic remedies, you have probably experienced its profound results as well as times, perhaps, when nothing at all had happened. The reason for this is that homeopathy is a highly individualized healing art. The key to its success is in personally finding the right remedies for your unique needs.

With thousands of remedies from which to choose, most of homeopathy's great successes of the past have been relegated to just a few specialists with many years of complex study.

Now, we have new procedures to bring the many benefits of homeopathy to everybody. These breakthroughs now make homeopathy easy and accessible for all!

Bio-Response Test
(BRT)
“Opening the door to a new frontier in health care”

These remarkable procedures offer us the opportunity to go much further than we've ever been in our health. Our bodies are actually a whole lot smarter than all the greatest minds of this world will ever be. Deep within the inner fabric of our very being we find a wealth of wisdom waiting to be tapped. Resident within all of us is an endless reservoir of resources ready for our discovery.

How can we tap into this endless reservoir of knowledge about ourselves? Higher health techniques are essential to achieve a higher level of health. The Bio-Response Test (BRT) provides us new opportunities to directly communicate with our body. Through this simple reflex test you will be able to immediately discern what products you need as well as what you don't need from the vast ocean of health products available.

The BRT is the ideal compliment to the standard medical tests presently available. The BRT allows us to access our body's neural control networks to tell us vital information traditional lab tests cannot. Although traditional lab tests are good, they do not take into account the body's incredible innate ability to communicate what we need.

The BRT applies the two easiest ways to communicate with our body. These two procedures include the muscle test and the leg length test. You may prefer one of these tests to the other. Sometimes, one procedure may work better than the other for either the tester or the one being tested. You can use both as a double confirmation.

Once you have grasped the basics of this procedure, you will want to share it with others. Begin by choosing somebody you want to become your healing partner. Walk through the following steps with your healing partner. Have some homeopathic remedies on hand so you both can practice the Bio-Response Test. In doing so, you will discover the excitement and power of helping each other heal. You will enjoy this enlightening and exciting journey together.
