If I had just one therapy I had to pick to give me the most benefit it would be homeopathy! New breakthroughs in homeopathy have turned this once complex healing art into a simple and accessible solution for all. Now anyone can quickly and effectively experience its remarkable success. These new advances can simply and safely equip you to overcome a broad scope of health problems. From allergies to warts and headaches to hemorrhoids, you can now get fast results using homeopathy. Nothing provides as pure a healing approach as homeopathy.

What is Homeopathy?

Homeopathy is a scientific system of health care which calls on the body's own powerful healing resources to cure disease naturally, gently and promptly. A 200-year-old natural pharmaceutical science, homeopathy uses pure ingredients from all realms of nature.

Discovered by German physician, Samuel Christian Hahneman, in 1790, homeopathy has a vast accumulation of time-tested research. Through the law of similars (a verified law in pharmacology) the unique homeopathic potentization process is accomplished. This potentization process transforms minute doses of pure natural ingredients into potent natural medicines. This empowering process actually activates your body's own healing resources to heal and restore health.

Homeopathy is based on the principle that we are designed to be healthy and that we have built within us every mechanism to overcome disease and maintain abundant health. In the hierarchy of health care, homeopathy holds a very strategic position.

Homeopathy functions very differently from other remedies such as herbs, vitamins and minerals. While herbs, vitamins and minerals work on a bio chemical level to change or support body chemistry, homeopathy works on a bio energetic level to bring balance to our communication networks. All body functions are controlled and coordinated through energetic communication networks such as our nervous system. Every chemical within our body has a particular charge to it. These charges are there to respond very specifically to our energetic control networks. By balancing our energetic communications with homeopathy, the roots to our bio chemical functions can also be restored. The bio energetic realm of life controls the bio chemical realm of life.

We have found the easiest and most effective way to rebuild health is to first restore the communication networks within our body. The deeper works of homeopathy can make all our other efforts much simpler. In fact, homeopathy will empower our body to respond much more effectively to all our efforts in building health. As the inner integrity of our health is restored with homeopathy

- ◆ Good eating habits become more effectual.
- ◆ Herbal and nutritional supplements become more effectual.
- ◆ Our efforts of exercise become more effectual.
- ◆ Even our efforts to manage stress and think more positively become more effectual.

To demonstrate these principles of healing, imagine cutting a fresh steak. Then apply every form of medicine known. You can stitch it up, cauterize it, use antibiotics, natural remedies, and obviously, the steak will not heal. The purpose of this parable is very important. Chemicals are not the primary source of healing. It is this energetic control system of life itself that is the source of our healing.

As we grasp more completely the power of these healing principles, we will be able to take on a greater level of authority and control in our health. We will become more successful as stewards of our bodies. We will become more effectual in our efforts to attain and maintain great health.

These bio energetic principles are why homeopathic medicines can commonly provide such quick results often within 30 seconds to just a few minutes. Once a homeopathic medicine is placed within the mouth, its therapeutic effects are then transmitted by the sublingual nerve pathways around the tongue to the entire body. The unique healing powers of homeopathy are then transmitted at the average nerve speed of 200 M.P.H. throughout the body.

Homeopathy works so deeply within the fabric of the human body that actual cures can take place as well. Even inherited problems and weaknesses (called miasms in homeopathy) have well documented cures.

Homeopathy's proven safety record allows homeopathy to be the only products to be able to make the claims of no side effects, no known negative drug interactions, and no contraindications.

NEW BREAKTHROUGHS IN HOMEOPATHY

If you have ever used much homeopathy you have probably experienced these profound results as well as times when nothing at all had happened. The key to success in homeopathy is finding the correct remedies for you personally.

Homeopathy is a highly individualized healing art. With thousands of remedies from which to choose, the powerful results of homeopathy have become relegated to only a few professionals dedicated to this complex study.

One of the primary reasons for the recent revival in homeopathy has been the contemporization of its methods. These new approaches have turned the complex healing art of homeopathy into a simple and accessible system for all.

These new breakthroughs bring the benefits of homeopathy to everybody. These contemporary approaches include breakthroughs in both products and procedures. They are so simple anyone can apply them to their own personal needs.

One of the foundational breakthroughs in homeopathy is the more comprehensive formulation. These types of formulas are more aggressively designed to meet the more complex demands of our modern day health problems. Homeopathic ingredients can be synergistically combined to compliment each other.

Now there are formulas available in a pure water base. With no alcohol, no sugar, no glycerine, no taste, and no allergies, there are no problems taking homeopathic medicines.

Mixing multiple potencies of each ingredient all-together adds to the broader therapeutic spectrum needed to cover the more complex health problems of today.

Disease is much more complex today than it was one or two hundred years ago when the original classical methods of homeopathy were established. Since then, we have gone through a century of suppressive therapies with modern day drugs. We have used certain vaccinations that have shortcut our childhood diseases designed to build our immunity. We have exposure to man-made chemicals, which now range into the millions. This is why the more aggressive formulation processes are so necessary.

These new methods in homeopathy are designed to work powerfully at every level of life:

- ◆ To quickly overcome multiple symptoms
- ◆ To detoxify and activate our internal mechanisms for maintaining a clean and healthy body.
- ◆ To help restore and build a strong and healthy immune system.
- ◆ To help us heal mentally and emotionally.
- ◆ To strengthen our constitution which improves our overall health and quality of life.

A New Paradigm in Medicine

Homeopathy opens up a whole new dimension of healing for us. Homeopathy is not just another chemical altering substance; it offers us a whole new insight into health, disease and the healing processes. Homeopathy fills a great void no other health care system can. Homeopathy opens the door into a whole new arena of activating the human control system to heal itself.

Homeopathy

- ◆ Opens the door that can raise us to a new level of health.

- ◆ Is different from all other forms of health care.
- ◆ Can actually activate the healing powers resident within all of us to heal.
- ◆ Works to overcome disease by enhancing our inner health potentials to its highest level.

By personally applying the newer contemporary homeopathic approach, you can benefit greatly in your health. Homeopathy offers us a whole new dimension to healing. As a new paradigm in medicine, homeopathy fills a great void in our quest for optimal health. I encourage you to try these new homeopathic approaches and experience its wonderful results.
